WISCONSIN WATER ALLIANCE PRESENTS OUTSTANDING WATER LEGISLATOR OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Organization recognizes efforts of lawmakers to advance sound water policy

[Madison, WI] – Today, the Wisconsin Water Alliance presented its first ever Outstanding Water Legislator of the Year Award to five state lawmakers who are leading efforts to address the pressing water issues facing the state. The award recognizes a commitment to advancing sound water policy that protects the environment while allowing the resource to power our state’s economic engine. The award recipients represent unique backgrounds and geographically diverse areas.

Recipients of the Outstanding Water Legislator of the Year Award include:

- Speaker Robin Vos
- Rep. Todd Novak; Chair, Speaker’s Task Force on Water Quality
- Rep. Travis Tranel
- Sen. Rob Cowles
- Sen. Pat Testin

Wisconsin Water Alliance President Mike Huebsch released the following statement:

“Wisconsin Water Alliance is pleased to present the Outstanding Water Legislator of the Year Award to leaders who are committed to protecting our state’s water resources. From recreation to industry, water is central to Wisconsin’s success and requires reasonable action that addresses the diverse water-related issues facing our state. Wisconsin Water Alliance will continue to be both environmentally practical and business-minded as it works to advance water policy that moves our state forward.”

The Wisconsin Water Alliance is a non-partisan, statewide organization whose mission is to protect the state’s water resources and advocate for sound water policies that benefit families, cities, businesses, farmers, and others. Visit WisconsinWaterAlliance.org to learn more.
